The Base Fee is an annual rate of 0.50%. The Index Hurdle is the Blended 60/40 S&P 500® Index/Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index plus 1.00%. The Performance Adjustment is calculated according to a schedule that adds or subtracts 0.0020% of the Institutional Shares' average daily net assets for each 0.01% by which the performance of the Institutional Shares exceeds or lags the performance of the Index Hurdle over the Performance Period. The maximum Performance Adjustment (positive or negative) will not exceed an annual rate of +/- 0.20% of the Institutional Shares' average daily net assets during the Performance Period, which would occur when the performance of the Institutional Shares exceeds, or is exceeded by, the performance of the Index Hurdle by 1.00% over the Performance Period. Accordingly, the management fee will range from a minimum annual rate of 0.30% to a maximum annual rate of 0.70%.

Potential Risks

There are risks involved with investing, including possible loss of principal. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its stated objective. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, investments in smaller companies typically exhibit higher volatility. Bonds are subject to interest rate risk and will decline in value as interest rates rise. High yield bonds involve greater risks of default or downgrade and are more volatile than investment grade securities. Mortgage-backed securities (MBS) are subject to prepayment and extension risk and therefore react differently to changes in interest rates than other bonds. Small movements in interest rates may quickly and significantly reduce the value of MBS. Derivatives are often more volatile than other investments and may magnify the Fund's gains or losses. International investments involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from social, economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. Certain securities may be difficult or impossible to sell at the time and the price that the Fund would like. The Fund may have to accept a lower price to sell a security, sell other securities to raise cash, or give up an investment opportunity, any of which could have a negative effect on Fund management or performance.

Upside and downside capture measures how a fund has historically performed relative to its broad market benchmark during times of market strength - or positive returns - and weakness - or negative returns. Standard deviation is the statistical measure of historical volatility, a measure of the extent to which numbers are spread around their average. Alpha is the measure of risk-adjusted performance. Beta is the measure of risk in relation to the market or benchmark. R-Squared is the measure of how closely a portfolio's performance correlates with the performance of a benchmark. Tracking Error is the amount by which the performance of the portfolio differs from the benchmark. Sharpe Ratio is the measure of the excess return (risk premium) per unit of risk in an investment. The 30-Day Yield represents net investment income earned by the Fund over the 30-day period ending 3/31/2024, expressed as an annual percentage rate based on the Fund's share price at the end of the 30-day period. Current yield is an investment's annual income (interest or dividends) divided by the current price of the security. The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Bond Index is a broad base bond market index representing intermediate term investment grade bonds traded in the United States. The S&P 500 Index is a market value weighted index consisting of 500 stocks chosen for market size, liquidity, and industry group representation, with each stock's weight in the Index proportionate to its market value. The Benchmark Indices' returns do not reflect any management fees, transaction costs, or expenses. Indices are unmanaged and one cannot invest directly in an index. The Westwood Funds are distributed by Ultimus Fund Distributors, LLC. (Member FINRA) Ultimus Fund Distributors and Westwood Funds (or Westwood Holdings Group, Inc.) are separate and unaffiliated.
